

ORANGE COUNTY BUSINESS JOURNAL

Hats Off

► Tony Moiso, chairman and CEO, Rancho Mission Viejo; honorary co-chair, Gentlemen's Haberdashery

The Gentlemen's Haberdashery raised a record-breaking amount of more than $500,000 at its returning annual event, held on April 28, at the Balboa Bay Resort in Newport Beach, with nearly 400 people in attendance.

The funds will help support The Heart of Jesus Retreat Center, which is operated by the Sisters of the Society Devoted to the Sacred Heart. The Center provides religious and integrity formation and avenues of faith development for children, youth, adults and families.

Event sponsors included First American Title Insurance Co.,

Fountainhead, Greenstone Materials Inc.; Ortiz Enterprises, Shea Homes, Frontier Real Estate, Pulte Group, Signum LLC; and Westar Associates.

"After a two-year hiatus, the 40th annual Gentlemen's Haberdashery took on extra special meaning as we gathered to honor and celebrate the legacy of this event," said Tony Moiso, chairman and CEO, Rancho Mission Viejo, and honorary co-chair, Gentlemen's Haberdashery. "It was inspiring to see such a generous and philanthropic group of leaders and members of our community come together with a common goal to give thousands of children in Orange County and Southern California the gift of laughter, prayer and learning at the Heart of Jesus Retreat Center."

Gary's, State & Liberty, J. Hilburn, Wildfire Mercantile, Olivia's and Toes on the Nose contributed clothing for the runway show, which was modeled by Orange County executives and community leaders, among them Seth Teigen, CEO, Providence Mission Hospital; Jeff Jackson, president, Patronus; Dave Riemann, CEO, 520 Capital LLC and Mike Recupero, owner and president, Recupero & Associates.

